

			🍂	November	🍂
	Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
							1
							Story: A hiking trip leads to unexpected places.
	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
	Story: A diary found hidden in an old crate in the grandparents attic changes everything.	List: Summer things to do in November.	Story Starter: "The wind howled outside the tiny cabin, but inside was deadly silent."	Describe: The warmth of a winter coat on a cold day.	Perspective: The family dog talks. What does it say?	Describe: The first snowfall falling softly.	Poem: Tiny details
	9	10	11	12	13	14	15
	Story Starter: "The smell of cinnamon and pine filled the air, but all I could focus on was the strange little creature sitting in the corner."	Perspective: A squirrel and a rabbit argue.	Story: A young adult returns home after being gone for a few years to discover a hidden room in their childhood home, filled with their favorite memories.	Poem: Season of giving	List: November Foods	Journal Entry: "We only had a few days left to live."	Haiku: Thankful for
	16	17	18	19	20	21	22
	Letter: Someone in 1800 gets a letter from someone claiming to be from 2100.	Story Starter: "I never thought I'd be here again, standing on the edge of the bridge watching the rapid flow of the river below me."	Story: A family meal where someone reveals a secret that changes everything.	List: Things you are grateful for.	Poem: Letting go	Poem: Contrast the quiet of snow with the bustle of getting ready for the winter season.	List: Holiday Traditions
	23	24	25	26	27	28	29
	Journal Entry: "That door opened last night, but I'm not sure I should go through it."	Rhyming Poem: Turkey	Mystery: A Thanksgiving meal where the food disappears before the guests eyes.	Story: A young adult goes home for Thanksgiving, only to find their childhood home has disappeared.	Acrostic: Thanksgiving	Poem: A tree loses all its leaves.	Story: A photo found in an old album changes a family forever.
	30
	Poem: Passage of Time.						